SEE CHANCE FOR PEACE.

Berlin Newspaper Comments Favorably on Turkey's Willingness to Accept Mediation of the Powers.
[By Atlantic Cable and by Federal Wireline] (The Overland in The Times)
BERLIN, March 2.—[Special Dispatch.] The readiness of Turkey to accept the mediation of the great European powers is the decided step by the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, the semi-official organ of the government. The paper adds the powers would immediately apply to the Balkan band in order to find out if the four states constituting the band are willing to agree to their mediation.In case the answer is satisfactory the beginning of the first peace negotiations would probably have a favorable reactive effect on the solution of the pending questions affecting the interests of the powers.
Other papers very cautiously comment on the statements of the Nord Deutsche Allgemeine reported yesterday about the increase of the German army.Valuable Jewelry of an apparent assault and robbery, the wife of E. W. Miller, a widely-known real estate dealer of San Antonio, Tex., too, is in the real estate business. Before her marriage, 10 years ago she was Mrs. Mabel Luter and was accounted one of the most successful real estate brokers of Texas.

Miller tonight only had word that his wife had been slightly injured and was in a Chicago hospital. He knew nothing of the $42,000 robbery and could not account for that sum of money being in his wife's possession, although he supposed it represented the proceeds of one of her own real estate transactions.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Exhorting Suffragists.

Plans for Big Parade Pageant Are Complete.

Five Thousand Women Expected in Line.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—Large suffrage meetings were held today in the city. The suffrage question was discussed by speakers who planned the shoulders of the men the day of the white slave traffic, child labor and underpaid women workers in the sweatshops and the factories of the larger cities of the country.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt made the principal speech, and Senator Elihu Root with ignorance of history when he recently questioned whether granting them the vote would give the country a government.

"Gen." Rosalie Jones, who has been from New York, also made a speech and introduced to her audience members of her "army" of speakers were Miss Jane Addams, Mrs. Raymond Brown and the Mauds of California.

WILL BE GREAT PAGEANT. Women will have a gala day in Washington tomorrow, a day of pageantry to spur on the suffrage franchise.

Plans for a suffrage parade have been made on a most magnificent scale and 500 women are expected to march up Pennsylvania avenue from Peace Monument to the city hall, and then to the White House.

Accompanying the parade will be a series of floats, and the steps of the Treasury building, which will be impersonated by the suffragists, will be a most impressive sight. Liberty, Plenty, Peace, Hope, Them, attended by groups of women, will view the procession where the final rally of the day will be held.

ALLEGORICAL FLOATS. Mrs. Richard C. Bissell, secretary of the National Woman's party, will be in the lead of the parade. Miss Inez Mithell, of New York, will be in the lead of the parade. The first section of the parade will be the "National Woman's party" which will be led by Mrs. C. Bissell, president of the National Woman's party, and Mrs. C. Bissell, president of the National Woman's party.

The second section of the parade will be the "National Woman's party" which will be led by Mrs. C. Bissell, president of the National Woman's party, and Mrs. C. Bissell, president of the National Woman's party.

MAT ARTISTS WITH WILSON.

Special Stop at Baltimore To-day to Let Wrestling Team Off.

(By Wireless Line to The Times.) BALTIMORE, March 2.—[Special Dispatch.] When the Woodrow Wilson special with the President-elect aboard passes through Union Station tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock it will stop long enough to let off a wrestling team. The Pennsylvania Railroad officials which purchased this interesting bit of information today couldn't add anything to it in explanation. Nobody seems to know why a wrestling team should come from Princeton to Baltimore on the President-elect's special. But whatever the reason, that wrestling team will give Baltimore the opportunity of sheltering the President-elect for a few minutes tomorrow afternoon.

SENATE PASSES SEAMEN'S BILL.

Burton Measure Is Designed to Abolish Involuntary Servitude and Improve Conditions of Sailors.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 2.—The Senate tonight by a vote of 41 to 20 passed the Burton bill designed to abolish involuntary servitude of seamen and improve conditions of seamen and living on American merchant ships as a substitute measure for the Wilson bill previously passed by the House. The vote came at the end of six hours of debate, during which a number of important amendments were made to the original Burton bill.

The legislation would make radical changes in conditions now prevailing in the American merchant marine and it has been vigorously pushed by labor organizations. Many of the features of the bill passed by the Senate, however, are not satisfactory to the organization of lake and ocean seamen and it is believed it will be difficult to reach an agreement to require adequate lifeboat crews on all ships.

The bill would require three watches in the engine rooms of vessels and would abolish regulations which now permit sailors to be held in service while in foreign ports. It also would require adequate lifeboat crews on all ships.

NORRIS BILL SENT TO TAFT.

Provides for Publicity of Sherman Trust Hearings—House Extends Burton Niagara Act One Year.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) WASHINGTON, March 2.—The House tonight passed the Norris bill providing for publicity of all testimony taken before masters appointed by the courts in equity proceedings under the Sherman anti-trust law. The bill has passed the Senate and now goes to the President for his signature.

The measure was prompted by a special court order issued in the suit brought by the Attorney General against the United Shoe Machinery company, which enforced the examination of witnesses in secret.

The House also adopted a resolution to extend for one year the provisions of the Burton act regarding the development of electric power at Niagara Falls. The resolution would amend the law to increase the amount of Canadian-developed power allowed to be imported into the United States from 165,000 horsepower to 250,000 horsepower.

WILE PASS UP DENVER.

Dr. Friedmann Unable to Visit His Brother—Conference With Millionaire Charles E. Finlay.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 2.—[Special Dispatch.] Dr. Friedrich Friedmann will not be able to go to Denver, Colo., to treat consumptives with his turtle bacillus cure. His brother, Dr. Arthur C. H. Friedmann, made this announcement positively tonight at the Waldorf-Astoria.

"My brother is very busy," said Dr. Arthur Friedmann, "but he finds his time here so limited that it will not be feasible for him to go to Colorado. His heart is torn by the thousands of pleas for relief from consumption which he has received and up to now he was hopeful of being able to go with me to Denver, but I regret to say he finds that he cannot do so. You can say that this is absolutely definite and its publication by the Denver News will prevent the building up of false hopes only to be followed up by cruel disappointment."

Today's conference with Charles E. Finlay, the millionaire who offered $1,000,000 for a 95 per cent. demonstration of the effectiveness of the Friedmann anti-toxin had nothing to do, it was said, with that proposal, which Friedmann rejected as soon as he learned of it. It was promised that the arrangement for the treatment of American patients will be completed within the next twenty-four hours.

WILSON FAMILY LEAVES TODAY.

Students to Escort Them to Railway Station.

May Put the President-elect Through Car Window.

Bungalow at Princeton Is Finally Dismantled.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PRINCETON (N. J.) March 2.—With only one day remaining before his inauguration as chief magistrate of the nation, President-elect Woodrow Wilson prepared tonight for his trip to the national capital tomorrow. It was his last night at his home in the historic little town where he has lived for 27 years. After a busy day of farewells, Mr. Wilson and his family were ready for their departure at 11 A. M. tomorrow for Washington.

Symbolic of his long association with Princeton University, the trip to Washington will be distinctly a Princeton affair. The president-elect and his family will be the guests of the students, who have engaged a special train for the trip.

A committee of students will call at the Wilson bungalow with three automobiles. At the station, the entire student body of the university will gather to say farewell and cheer.

MAY GO THROUGH CAR WINDOW.

"I wonder if they'll put me through the car window," mused Mr. Wilson when he heard of the program. This is a Princeton tradition with graduates.

About 500 students will be aboard the train but the remainder will go on foot.

The little Wilson bungalow was practically dismantled tonight but for the first time in many weeks the Wilson family circle was complete at supper. Miss Margaret Wilson, the eldest daughter, has been spending most of her time in New York studying music. Miss Josephine, the second daughter, has been actively interested in Y.W.C.A. work and settlement work, while Miss Eleanor has been studying in the Phillips Exeter Academy.

All the young women will continue their respective pursuits but will live at the White House.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PARTY.

The Presidential party will consist of the President-elect, his wife and three daughters, Prof. Stockton Axson, a brother of Mrs. Wilson, Fitzwilliam McManister Woodrow and Miss Hazel Jones, both cousins of Mr. Wilson. At West Philadelphia, Mrs. Annie Howe, a sister of the President-elect, will join the party, escorted by Congressman H. Brown, personal aide to Mr. Wilson during his term as Governor and now aide to Maj.-Gen. Wood for the inaugural parade.

The students have provided automobiles for the Wilson party, who will be taken immediately on their train in Washington to a hotel near the White House.

STUDENT ESCORT.

On Tuesday morning the Princeton students will escort Mr. Wilson to the White House from the hotel, thus continuing the final part of their duties as official escort. At the White House they will give a Princeton cheer for President Taft, Yale '78.

The inauguration ceremony will be a military commission composed of Bulgarians and Turks.

FREE FOR ALL RACE.

New Mexico Democratic Central Committee Turns Loose Three Hundred Office-Seekers Upon Wilson.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SANTA FE (N. M.) March 2.—The Democratic State Central Committee in session here yesterday adopted a resolution not to endorse any candidates for Federal appointment from New Mexico, leaving all office seekers under the Wilson administration completely free in presenting their claims for appointment to the incoming President. As a result it is probable that President Wilson will find himself burdened with the duty of selecting appointees for a score of Federal offices in New Mexico from upwards of 300 job seekers.

DESCRIBES HER EVENING GOWN.

Mrs. Wilson Had It Made for the Inaugural Ball, That Her Husband Called Off Later.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.) PRINCETON (N. J.) March 2.—Mrs. Wilson gave tonight the first description of the evening gown she would wear when she had the inaugural ball. She will wear the gown, however, at the first evening occasion after becoming mistress of the White House.

THE GOWN.

The gown is a brocade pattern, the predominant color being light green. It is low in the neck and has a long train. There is a drapery of lace at the neck and down the front of the skirt, and a suggestion of lace down the back. About the neck, also, there is a little tridacene applique head work, and some butterflies in shape of green rose. There is a similar butterfly on each sleeve at the shoulder.

BRYAN TALKS PEACE.

Special Guest in North Carolina Capital Leaves With Josephus Daniels for Inauguration.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.) RALEIGH (N. C.) March 2.—William Jennings Bryan spoke here tonight to 8000 persons on "peace." He was a special guest of the North Carolina peace conference which has been in session in this city for two days.

Mr. Bryan and party, accompanied by Josephus Daniels, who it is reported, will be Secretary of the Navy in President Wilson's Cabinet, left tonight for Washington.

FATAL DASH FOR LIBERTY.

MEXICO CITY, March 2.—Several groups of prisoners who escaped from Belen prison during the recent bombardment and were being returned to prison today, made a violent attempt to escape. The police fired a volley, killing three and wounding five of them. None of the prisoners were prominent politically.

DR. AKED OUT FOR SUFFRAGE.

San Francisco Divine Offers Double-Barreled Argument for Consideration of British Brethren.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 2.—[Special Dispatch.] Rev. Charles Aked, the English divine who now occupies a San Francisco pulpit, after preaching for four years in the Fifth-avenue Baptist Church of New York, is strongly in favor of woman's suffrage.

Dr. Aked gave a "double-barreled" argument in favor of the extension of woman suffrage. He drew his first argument from the fact that the woman suffrage sprang from one State to those contiguous to it, thus proving that since it is adopted by those who have a chance to study it in operation just across their border, it works no harm but it is beneficial to the community.

The second barrel of the argument showed that communities that have once given the women partial suffrage never have gone back and disfranchised their women. But he always progressed to fuller or complete enfranchisement. Dr. Aked proved that this is the infallible law of suffrage from the history of the reform in England and Australia and America and, in fact, from all places where the women have the right of suffrage.

"In Great Britain," he says, "the obtaining of suffrage by the women is only a matter of time. Parliament has declared in favor of it by an overwhelming vote on several occasions, and only because of a peculiarity in the English system of government has the measure failed to become a law. The women of England are so much nearer the vote because of the more highly developed sense of humor of the British people. The position of the women has become even too ludicrous for the English sense of humor; a woman can rule an empire, but she cannot vote for a member of Parliament. It has grown so absurd that absurdity can grow no greater."

STRIKES RENOUNCE PACT.

Three Parades to Take Place According to Plans of Brotherhood of Tailors at Mass Meeting.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) NEW YORK, March 2.—The agreement under which the garment workers' strike, which has been in progress for two months, was declared off last week, was denounced tonight at three mass meetings attended by several thousand strikers. Three parades were arranged for tomorrow by the Brotherhood of Tailors, the largest single union affected.

Peace Terms.

Fifth, all the Aegean Islands occupied at present by the Greeks to be ceded to the allies.

Sixth, prisoners of war and hostages to be exchanged with the briefest delay.

Seventh, Turkey to pay the allies $200,000,000 war indemnity, deducting from it, however, that portion of the Ottoman debt borne by the Turkish European provinces.

Eighth, a special representative of the Sultan to be permitted in the Balkan territory for religious purposes, having under his jurisdiction all mosques, pious funds and church properties.

Ninth, all treaties, conventions and agreements existing between the allies and Turkey before the commencement of the war to be re-established.

TURKEY FEARS REVOLUTION.

Officers and Civilians Held in Embryo Conspiracy.

Young Leaders Nervous and Garrison Increased.

Meddling in Politics Causes Army Dismissals.

(BY CABLE AND A. P. TO THE TIMES.) CONSTANTINOPLE, March 2.—The government appears apprehensive of a fresh revolution since the discovery of a conspiracy on Thursday last when several prominent officers and civilians, including a former military Governor, were placed under arrest. The Young Turk leaders are nervous, and the garrison has been increased by two regiments. The guards at the Porte also have been strengthened and other measures have been taken to enable the immediate suppression of any attempted coup.

Many officers have been dismissed from the army for meddling in politics. Thirteen officers delegated by the army at Thessalonike to make representations to the government were arrested today on their arrival at Constantinople.

The severe weather continues and the country is covered with snow.

HOLD FREEDOM FESTIVAL.

Prussians Begin Celebration at Bremen of Awakening of the German National Spirit.

(By Atlantic Cable and by Federal (Wireless) Line Overland to The Times.)

BREITENBURG, March 2.—[Special Dispatch.] In the presence of the military and civil authorities the celebration of the centennial of the war for liberty of the regeneration of the Prussian State and of the awakening of the German national spirit has begun with a festival at the Aula of the University. It was Bremen where King Frederick William III issued in March, 1813, his famous appeal to "my people" which resulted in the raising of the Prussian people against its oppressor, Napoleon.

Peace Terms.

Fifth, all the Aegean Islands occupied at present by the Greeks to be ceded to the allies.

Perkins Pillowed.

P. Morgan & Co., its fiscal agents, and lawyers for secured bonds John D. Rockefeller, father-in-law of a member of the McCormick family which owns a large portion of the total stock of the corporation, the McCormick family, the exceptional resources, Mr. Conant maintains, not only enable the harvester company to "secure the economic control of the operation which, as a rule, give it marked advantages in manufacturing costs, but also enable it to maintain a very elaborate selling organization by virtue of the variety and extent of its business. Furthermore they give it a great advantage in extending credits to purchasers, an exceedingly important feature of the farm machinery industry."

ACQUISITION DECLARED SECRET.

Between 1902 and 1904 the company is declared by the commissioner to have acquired secretly control of D. L. Osborne & Co., its chief competitor; the Autman Miller Company, the Autman Miller Company. These are referred to as "bogus independent" companies. The secret acquisition of the Osborne company, the report says, was maintained for nearly two years, while it was being advertised as an independent concern. These representations, it is alleged, were supported by its managers in sworn statements that it was an independent company.

Two of the chief stockholders of the Osborne company, Mr. Conant adds, agreed to refrain from engaging independently in the same lines of business for ten years. The report says that the harvester company's assertion that the ownership was concealed in some case merely to facilitate the liquidation of the old concern is not regarded by the Bureau of Corporations as a justification of the practice.

METHODS CRITICIZED.

These acquisitions, the report continues, were followed by the company extending its manufacture from such harvesting machinery as grain binders and mowers to the so-called new lines on farming tools such as disc implements, manure spreaders, farm wagons, gasoline engines, tractors and steam separators. Compulsion of dealers to take the company's "new" lines by reason of its monopolistic control of harvesting machinery, the commissioner says, has been attempted with more or less success by the company's representatives. Competitive methods employed by the harvester company, Mr. Conant declares, have been the subject of much complaint. Regarding the charges that the company has made an effort to secure an undue proportion of local dealers in farm machinery by allotting a rule, only a single brand to any one dealer in the same place, thus tending to restrict the outlet for competitors' goods, Commissioner Conant says:

"If this is intended as a rule, only a single brand to any one dealer in the same place, thus tending to restrict the outlet for competitors' goods, Commissioner Conant says:

"This is a rule, only a single brand to any one dealer in the same place, thus tending to restrict the outlet for competitors' goods, Commissioner Conant says:

PERKINS' DILEMMA.

"It is important to consider," the report declares, "that the bankers who dominated the organization of the International Harvester Company also organized the United States Steel Corporation, officers of which, had, only a few weeks before, in important litigation then pending against that company, submitted affidavits to the effect that the value of its ore-taking lease holds and fee indiscriminately $1 per ton. Mr. Perkins, to whom was left the appraisal of these ore properties, and who also was chairman of the Finance Committee of the steel corporation, was, therefore, in no position to deny an excessive valuation for this Deering ore."

STOCK CLOSELY HELD.

The stock of the company, Commissioner Conant says, has been closely held by the former interests, the McCormick and Deering families having throughout held a large majority of the total, while considerable amounts also have been retained by other stockholders.

"This fact," he continues, "assumes especial importance in view of the pending dissolution suit of the government against the company."

Pointing to the recent action of the company in splitting into two corporations each with a $75,000,000 capital stock, one retaining the old harvester machine plants and the other taking over the new lines and foreign business, Mr. Conant comments:

"If this is intended as part of a plan for ultimate dissipation of the combination, in the opinion of the bureau, it is unsatisfactory."

The investigation, the report says, disclosed a record of low rates of return in the early years of the combination, partly owing to imperfect organization and internal jealousies, but much higher rates in recent years, averaging about 12 1/2 per cent. in 1909-11 on net assets (exclusive of good will), according to the bureau's estimates.

WHAT WOULD NOAH THINK?

Patriarch of Mt. Ararat Had Nothing on the Whopping Shrine Circus Here Next Week.

Great cuttings-up will begin at Shrine Auditorium on the afternoon of next Monday. That is the time set for the opening of the stupendous annual circus that will last for six hilarious days. "Something happening every minute" is the programme. The Barnes three-ring circus will be there as a side show to the main performance by the members of Al Mahalish Temple themselves. The nobles will also be seen behind counter selling and offering for sale peacocks and poppets and the red lemonade by the barrel.

The Shrine have employed a professional circus splendor, a man with a Brylcreme voice who will stand outside at the main entrance and explain what's doing.

The fat woman, the living skeleton, the tattooed man, the giant, the pigmy and the snake charmer will be among the side-show offerings, it is announced. The last performance of the day will be the exhibition of the trained animals—and the clowns. A lecturer will explain the habits and peculiarities of the various beasts.

The Shrine are doing it all. Between whiles they make pilgrimages across the hot sands to Venice and are maintained by the animals there in valiant practice for their forthcoming efforts in the sawdust ring.

Are you letting this, impure blood stand in the way of your daughter's health? Most girls have impoverished blood. Don't take it for granted that your daughter is free from it. Even now she may be in the first stages of bloodlessness. Its effects on her health and happiness are too lasting for you ever to let up in your care and watchfulness.

No matter how sick, worn out and discouraged she may be, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will give her new hope and life. For those feeling only just a little out of order, there is no better time than the present to take this blood-building medicine.

A full explanation of the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is given in the booklet, "Building Up the Blood," which is free.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, 50 cents per box, $2.50 for six boxes, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

PICTURES HARVESTER COMPANY AS PUBLIC BENEFACTOR.

Declares It Was Organized Economy of Production and That Reasons to Withdraw Publication of Report of Pending Litigation Was Justified.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, March 2.—Cyrus H. McCormick, president of the International Harvester Company, which advised of the nature of the report of the Commissioner of Corporations on the operating methods of the International Harvester Company, issued the following statement:

"For the Bureau of Corporations to make its report on the International Harvester Company at this time is manifestly unfair. It appears in the midst of the government's law suit, and within two days of the beginning of the evidence of the company. The bureau has considered the evidence; it refuses to wait for the company's evidence, which will disprove every charge of misconduct which the bureau makes."

"The report rehearses old charges which it finds are mainly untrue, but which it lacks the courage and candor unequivocally to deny."

"Compelled by the proof of independent appraisements, the report grudgingly concedes that this company, unlike many other large corporations, is not over capitalized. It admits that its profits have not been excessive, and that its dividends are the bureau's own unfair figures, less than 8 1/2 per cent. per year. While drawing unfavorable inferences from trivial and exceptional instances of misconduct by employees, the bureau fails to draw from the important facts of fair capitalization, reasonable prices and moderate profits, the conclusion that the American farmer has been benefited."

FORMER FOR ECONOMY'S SAKE.

"The bureau concedes that the company has always claimed that its formation was to secure the most economical production. We have secured it. Harvesting machines are the cheapest things the farmer buys. Their prices have remained level during an era of generally increasing costs."

"The new lines which the bureau criticizes the company for developing, such as farm tractors, engines and manure spreaders, are largely new implements in the line of more scientific farming."

"On the question of temporarily concealing the purchase of certain harvester plants the report ignores and impeaches the sworn testimony of the government's own witnesses as to the equity suit. The owners of the selling companies were called by the government to produce such witness; but they testified that that course was not taken at the instance of the International Harvester company, or for its benefit; that it was done to enable one selling company to collect its $5,000,000 of outstanding accounts; to enable another selling company to liquidate its affairs; and a third to protect its guaranty of receivables."

"At one time we objected to a suit being commenced against us until the Bureau of Corporations had filed its report; and we have repeatedly urged this bureau to make its report. It delayed, however, until the suit was brought and the bureau had fully considered the government's 100 pages of evidence. At this juncture, as a matter of elementary justice, we made three requests: First, that the bureau, having considered the testimony on one side of the case, should not close its report until it had heard the testimony on the other side; second, we asked it not to embarrass the administration of justice by undertaking to decide on this one-sided testimony the same questions of fact that the

LONG BEACH, March 3.—Inspector Devine of the State Board of Pharmacy, assigned to Southern California by the State board in its campaign against the unlawful sale of

Dr. Bowman, arrested in his office this morning, was given an immediate hearing and offered to plead guilty to avoid newspaper publicity, but Justice Underwood declined to accept (C)

AGAIN A SLEUTH.

Abandoning his real estate business, ex-Chief of Police T. W. Williams, vice-president of the Farmers' Bank, is again a sleuth, and is making thorough investigation of the disappearance of his brother.

Ed Williams last Saturday, while en route to Long Beach from San Diego on the steamer City of California, disappeared mysteriously. Today the ex-Chief interviewed the officers of the ship at San Pedro and found that Williams had been seen last at 3 o'clock in the morning sitting alone on the rearward deck of the ship by watchman who then observed "a man in a blue shirt and dark trousers" who then disappeared.

and was known a sailor on the boat, which was the property of William. The missing man had $50 when he left San Diego and a suspicious-looking man who was seen with him early in the evening left the boat at San Pedro before Williams' absence caused comment. The officers of the boat have offered the Chief every aid in their power.

MAY HAVE STARVED.

In a report to the Police Depart-

The physicians say that Donaldson was mentally unbalanced to a slight degree and they believe he was starving himself because of insufficiency of means or with suicidal intent. An money and bank deposit slips in the dead man's room totaled nearly $4000, the lack of funds theory is untenable. Donaldson's lifeless body was found leaning against the wall and half lying on the gas range on which he did his own cooking.

ANOTHER ARREST.
Alexander Chewing, Washington, D. C., arrested Thursday on complaint of the parents of little girl whom he approached was rearrested today on another complaint of a similar nature and following a hearing before Justice Underwood was sent to the County Jail under $1500 bond to await a hearing March 4.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Coupled with his report of a gain of $1.11 per cent. in receipts for February, Postmaster Hirsch has announced that beginning March 4 he will be selling mail carriers and three clerks, making the total number of carriers twenty-three. Receipts for February were $7713.55, a gain year. Receipts for the first two months of 1913 are $16,486.71 as against $15,326.54 the same time last year. Parcel post stamp sales for the month were $680.

A dispatch from Pueblo telling of the victimizing of Jacob Harder, a Colorado rancher of $25,000 by means of a fake horse race in Denver, brought out the fact today that the deal was probably engineered in Long Beach. Harder who was here a few weeks ago spent several days telegraphing to northern parts of the State and by the aid of Long Beach and Los Angeles bankers negotiated a loan of $25,000 by telegraph. Two men accompanied him during his efforts and appeared to take much inrest in him. One of them was often addressed as Webb. After he secured the loan Harder dropped out of sight and probably went to Denver where the buncoing game was carried out.

NATURAL COMPASSES.

Men Versed in Woodcraft Can Tell
By The Trees the Direction They

Wish to Go. [New York Press:] These well-versed in woodcraft point out that even in the "trackless forests" nature provides many natural compasses to keep the traveler straight in his course.

For instance, there is a mature tree that stands apart from its fellows. The bark on this tree will be harder, drier and lighter in color on the outh side. On the north it will be darker and often at the roots it will show a clump of mold or moss. On the south side of the evergreen trunk will be hard and amber colored. On the north side this gum is softer, generally dustier, and is of a solid gray hue. In the autumn or winter trees that show a rough bark have lots of insects in the crevices on the south side. Hardwood trees—the ash, the ash, elms, hickories, manna.

...have moss and mold on the north. Leaves are smaller, tougher, lighter in color and darker veins on the south. On the north they are lighter, or darked green and with lighter veins. Spiders build on the north side. In the South air plants will attach themselves to the north. Cedars bend their tips to the south.

Saved or cut stumps will afford one the compass points, inasmuch as the concentric rings are thicker on the south side. The heart of the stump is thus nearer to the north side. These results are said to be due to the influence of the sun. Stones are bare on the south side, and if they show any moss at all it will be on the north. At best, on the sunny side only a thin covering of harsh, half-dead moss will be found.

GUNS' CRACKLE STARTLES DAWN

Officers Battle Bandit Who Holds Up Cafe.

Dozen Shots Fired at Close Range; Robber Hurt.

Seven Jobs Credited to Him in but Few Hours.

Somewhere in hiding in the city is a highwayman with a bullet wound through both hips. He was shot by Patrolman Bachman during a hot three-cornered revolver duel, following the sensational holding-up and robbing of Gyles Cafe, No. 851 South Spring street, shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

The police hope to catch the man when he is forced to seek admittance into some hospital for surgical treatment or asks help of a physician. A warning has been sent to all hospitals and physicians to immediately notify headquarters if a wounded man should come to them.

It is thought by the police that the man shot and his partner, who escaped, are the men who worked together and singly in various sections of the city Saturday night and yesterday morning, holding up and robbing three other stores, two pedestrians and a man in his room.

Besides the Gyles cafe robbery, the six other hold-ups were: David Melnikoff's store, No. 1522 West Tenth street. A masked man waved customers and employees aside with a gun which he pointed at Lily Melnikoff, 16 years old, who worked at the cash register, while he rifled it of a few dollars.

J. Gavan's grocery, No. 4691 Vermont avenue. Occupants were forced to stand aside while same man took $35 from cash register.

L. C. Blakelee's grocery, No. 938 Gratiot street. Unknown bandit taken from cash register at point of revolver.

J. G. Davis, No. 2347 Canyon drive, Hollywood. Robbed by masked men in his room. They secured a watch and a few minor trinkets.

B. D. Singletary, No. 1770 Talmage street, Hollywood. Held up on Prospect street. Watch and 25-cent piece taken.

J. W. Clark, guest of Corona Hotel, Robbed of $30.15 by two men in front of shop at No. 227 West Seventh street.

THRILLING DUEL

The robbery of the Gyles Cafe was one of the most daring crimes of its kind that has been committed in Los Angeles in some time. It is considered remarkable by the police that Patrolman Bachman, Watchman Sheppard and the highwayman were not all three killed, for more than a dozen shots were fired at close range during the street duel.

While standing almost opposite the cafe, Bachman noticed a man lurking in a hallway a couple of doors away. As he started across the street to investigate he saw the robber, who had not noticed him, take a large revolver from his pocket and walk quickly into the place. Realizing that the cafe was about to be held up, Bachman ran to the corner and turned a fast call to the Central Station.

As Bachman rushed back to the cafe he met Sheppard and called to him that the place was being held up. Sheppard saw the man rifling the cash register, at the same time holding Miss Helen Stevens, No. 847 South Grand avenue, at bay with his gun. The watchman fired two shots through the window at the man.

BULLETS FLY

As the robber ran from the cafe he passed less than six feet from Bachman, who first made an effort to grab him and then emptied his revolver at him. At the same time Sheppard was exchanging shots with the fleeing bandit.

Bachman reported that he is positive that one of his close-range shots took effect, declaring that the bullet pierced the robber's hip. The man finally disappeared down Spring street. An automobile passing the place ran a gauntlet of bullets, but got through unscathed.

During the revolver duel a man lurking in an alley on Ninth between Main and Broadway, was seen to emerge from his hiding place and run in an opposite direction to that taken by the man who entered the cafe. The police think that he is the partner of the bandit.

A landlady who conducts a rooming-house at No. 129 West Ninth street, was awakened by the shooting. A moment later she heard a man rush into her place, run down the hall, and, after entering a room, slam the door. Later when she investigated, she found that the occupant of that room, one of her recent boarders, had disappeared.

It is the surmise of the police that the man was the one of the two, possibly the one wounded, and that he returned to the room to get his personal effects and escape.

CLUB'S LADIES' NIGHT

"La Fiesta de Senoritas" is what an enthusiastic member of the Jonathan Club called the "dolls" last evening. It was ladies' night again at the hospitable sky parlors, the function of the kind. Two hundred women were guests of club members at dinner and for the evening, an attractive musical programme adding to the pleasure of the occasion. At the Los Angeles Athletic Club several hundred beautifully gowned women thronged the dining hall and parlors. It was ladies' night there too.

BUSTING FISH TRUST?

Hungry Robber Swipes Four Hundred Raw Oysters—Fifty Bottles of Hop and Doctor's Tonic Stolen.

Four hundred oysters, a number of old coins, more than fifty bottles of morphine sulphate and morphine tablets, a quantity of jewelry and $150 worth of surgical instruments were the net results of four burglary jobs late Saturday night.

The oysters were taken from the ice chest of the Harbor Fish Company, No. 544 South Alameda street. The burglar effected an entrance by breaking a padlock.

Dr. P. O. Sunden, No. 634 H. W. Hellman building, reported the loss of the surgical instruments. They were taken from his auto, which he left standing near Fourth and Spring streets while making a professional visit.

The theft of the morphine sulphate and morphine tablets was reported by A. H. Smith, of the Pacific Drug Company. Pass keys were used to force an entrance into the establishment. A "hop-head" is suspected of this job.

J. K. Edwards, No. 137 North Dalton street, reported the loss of the old jewelry. He said the thief gained an entrance into the house by first removing the pins from a rear door.

TURN SOD FOR KNIGHTS' HOME.

BISHOP CONATY PRESIDES AT REVERENT CEREMONY.

Ground Broken for Two-Hundred-and-Fifty-Thousand-Dollar Clubhouse at Sixth and Flower—Prestige's Eloquent Words Praised Worthy Use for Great Structure.

Under a smiling sky and in the presence of 5000 persons, Bishop Conaty broke ground yesterday for the five-story clubhouse to be erected at Sixth and Flower streets by the Knights of Columbus. Rain, prevented the ceremony from being performed one week ago yesterday, as originally intended.

The Knights formed in parade in front of St. Vibiana's Cathedral and, led by a squad of mounted police, marched to the site of their proposed $250,000 home. Bishop Conaty was escorted by a guard of honor composed of Knights in fourth degree uniform.

By the time that the parade arrived at the building site a crowd of several thousand persons had assembled. The dedicatory ceremony was opened by the chanting of an ode by the bishop and the priests.

"My wife is a beautiful girl. She is well educated, an accomplished musician, and has many fascinating ways. She is a perfect mother and a perfect wife. I am proud to have her as my wife. I do not think I will be proud to have any other woman as my wife."

"I have done my best trying to help you. You say I have been an awful bother and very expensive. It doesn't seem to me you think me worth all the trouble. I think the course I am taking will be for the best of both of us. May God bless you and watch over you as I would have done, for the earnest prayer of—
"Your broken-hearted Bud."

Among Kaylar's effects was a letter addressed to his parents, informing them that he had married a "beautiful Minneapolis girl, whose father owns a hardware store."

When seen in jail yesterday, Kaylar said: "I am a beautiful girl. She is well educated, an accomplished musician, and has many fascinating ways. She is a perfect mother and a perfect wife. I am proud to have her as my wife. I do not think I will be proud to have any other woman as my wife."

Bishop Conaty and His Guard of Honor

Snapped in the parade of the Knights of Columbus yesterday prior to the groundbreaking ceremonies for the $250,000 clubhouse which the organization will erect at Sixth and Flower streets.

fore breaking the ground, the bishop sprinkled the place with holy water in four directions, saying: "Thou shalt sprinkle me, O Lord, with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed; thou shalt wash me, and I will be whiter than snow."

In conclusion of this part of the service the crowd joined in singing the Te Deum. Grand Knight D. Joseph Coyne opened the literary exercises and introduced D. P. McGarry, the chairman. The principal address was made by Bishop Conaty.

"With all the pomp of ceremonial, and in the presence of this large and distinguished gathering of the Knights of Columbus and their friends, we have broken ground for the Knights of Columbus' new clubhouse," Bishop Conaty began. "An occasion like this should give you the purpose, the spirit, and the atmosphere by which to determine the special line of goodness you are called upon to follow. The Knights of Columbus is essentially religious, essentially Catholic. It is an organization of Catholic men banded together for social, beneficial and religious purposes, dominated by the spirit of faith and patriotism, loving the things of God, helpful to one another, and determined to render the fullness of service to all the interests of religion and your fellowmen."

"Faith and patriotism are twin virtues, characteristic of the ideal life; and faith and patriotism are the underlying principles of the Knights of Columbus. As an organization the Knights of Columbus have merited the commendation of their church and the good will of their fellow citizens."

SIR GALAHAD BEHIND BARS.

Alleged Efforts to Rescue
Girl Disastrous.

Jailed for Bad Check; Says
She "Busted" Him.

"And that After I Saved Her from Barbary Coast"

A professed effort to save a young woman from a life of dissipation among the dance-halls and other resorts of the notorious Barbary Coast, San Francisco, landed Harvey J. Kaylar, 19 years old, recently from Marion, Ga., in the Central Station Jail early yesterday morning. He was arrested on suspicion of having forged his brother's name to a check for $25.00. Earlier in the evening he had presented it at a Spring-street store in payment for a suit of clothes.

Back of Kaylar's arrest is a remarkable love story, if what he says is true. It relates a chance acquaintance with Mrs. Nadene Elliott, formed upon the station platform at Tehama; a courtship that began in that city and terminated in the Hippodrome at San Francisco; a hasty marriage, unattended by the parents of the girl, who, Kaylar said yesterday, admitted to him she had been married three times before; a life of luxury at Fresno, largely at the expense of the brother, and a smash-up in Los Angeles, where funds became exhausted and the boy-husband invited his wife to pack her goods and leave, saying:

"Your habits are too expensive for me."

Mrs. Kaylar went to San Bernardino, where she joined her mother, who was visiting friends in that city. Before leaving Los Angeles, the wife wrote Kaylar a letter, in which she said in part:

"BROKEN-HEARTED."
"I have done my best trying to help you. You say I have been an awful bother and very expensive. It doesn't seem to me you think me worth all the trouble. I think the course I am taking will be for the best of both of us. May God bless you and watch over you as I would have done, for the earnest prayer of—

"I'LL NEVER DRIVE A CAR AGAIN," SHE SOBS.

Miss Frances Loftus and Miss Louise Carter.

The former (in front) was the driver of the car which ran down and killed a baby girl at Twelfth street and Central avenue Saturday afternoon. Miss Carter was one of three companions, all women. Miss Loftus, who is agitated from blame, is confined to her bed with grief.

NERVES SHATTERED

and living over and over again the instant when her beautiful new car received its baptism of blood and the little life of Margaret Boehlert went beneath its unscratched wheels, Miss Frances Loftus, the pretty 21-year-old daughter of Frank L. Loftus, who drove the car on its journey of death, is in a serious condition at her home, No. 2725 West First street, where her mother denied her to visitors yesterday.

In spite of the fact that Miss Loftus is said to be an accomplished chauffeur, and is held blameless by the police for the unfortunate accident of Saturday at Twelfth street and Central avenue, the girl sobs that she will never drive another car, and that the memory of the baby-slipping from her mother's grasp and falling to her death beneath the car, will remain with her as long as she lives.

Immediately after the accident Miss Loftus visited the Boehlert home, No. 211 East Forty-ninth place, where a heart-rending scene took place as the overwrought girl attempted some word of consolation to the bereaved parents.

Witnesses say Miss Loftus made every effort to stop the machine before the accident and will so testify at the coroner's inquest, which will be held at the undertaking rooms of J. M. Riedemann, No. 1430 South Main street, at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is hoped the girl herself will be sufficiently recovered to give her version of the case. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon, with interment in Rosedale cemetery. The arrangements are being made by an uncle of Miss Loftus.

Miss Loftus has recently returned to her home in this city from Boston, where she studied music. She is rated as an accomplished performer, and is well-known in the younger society set in Los Angeles. The machine which she drove was purchased recently, largely for her use, but before she had familiarized herself with the handling of large and high-powered touring cars, and her mother said yesterday, as she competed to drive as a man, and more careful than most men.

BUSINESS IS GOOD.

Evidence that Los Angeles business conditions are much better than at this time last year is furnished in the report for the month just closed, issued yesterday by J. H. Thomas, director of the vocational department of the Y.M.C.A., whose chief function it is to find positions for men and boys out of work. "There were 268 applications filed by employers, seeking workers, as against 140 for the same period in 1912, and 174 jobs were filled as against 78 in 1912. There were 231 applicants for positions this month, as against 123 last year during the same time. Four hundred and ninety-eight men sent for positions as compared with 208 in 1912."

DAUGHTERS ELECT.

At the annual meeting of the United States Daughters of 1815 of California, the following were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. G. C. Donnan; first vice-president, Mrs. James B. Neal; second vice-president, Mrs. Nathan Cole, Jr.; treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Hewitt; registrar, Mrs. Charles N. Green; secretary, Mrs. W. W. Robles.

MISSION PLAY CELEBRATION.

Wednesday will be a gala day and evening at San Gabriel when the occasion of the 250th performance of the Mission Play will be celebrated by an audience to include Los Angeles women's clubs, the Ad Club, the Rotary Club, the Realty Board, the Traffic Men's Association and the Southern California Hotel Men's Association.

VICTIM'S PLUNDERED AND CUT TO RIBBONS.

S O WEAK from loss of blood that he could not walk, and suffering excruciating pain from half a dozen knife wounds measuring thirty inches altogether that were inflicted by four men who robbed him of $600.49, T. Sugihara, 48 years old, a Japanese clerk living at No. 437 Turner street, was taken to the Receiving Hospital at 4:30 o'clock yesterday morning for surgical treatment. It took the hospital attendants more than three hours to suture, stitch and dress the man's wounds.

Sugihara told Detective Rowe, who has been assigned the case, that shortly after 4 o'clock he was awakened by the men, who had forced an entrance into his room. Attired in his night clothes, the Japanese followed the quartette to the sidewalk, protesting against their taking his money, which was all in $20 gold pieces, excepting the 40 cents in silver. It was at the entrance to the house that the robbers tried to cut Sugihara to pieces to prevent his giving the alarm or later describing them so that they would be apprehended. Almost simultaneously the men drew knives and stabbed and slashed viciously at the clerk.

When Sugihara dropped partially unconscious to the sidewalk, the men ran away, evidently thinking that they had forever silenced the tongue of their victim. A few minutes later Sugihara recovered sufficiently to crawl to No. 213 Amelia street, where his piteous cries for assistance awakened N. Nishizu, who took the half-dead man to H. Kimura's store at the corner of Turner and Amelia streets.

Sugihara will probably recover if complications from his terrible wounds do not develop.

as President will set the nation an example of a clean, wholesome, sin-cerless life. He shall be greatly dis-

Christian living. According to the reports, Mr. Wilson is not much

He is not uttering the cry of the While he does most bitterly condemn the rich, fairly flaying them alive with What, Again?

JIM JEFFRIES WANTS TO GO BACK TO THE RING.

Big Fellow Is Considering a Proposition from Tom Jones to Re-enter the Heavyweight Ranks and Fight His Way to the Top of the Heavyweight Division. Wants to Beat Jack Johnson.

JIM JEFFRIES is seriously considering a return to the ring—according to Tom Jones.

Monday, I had intended going to San Francisco Saturday night, but at his request remained over to have another meeting with him on Monday.

"I put the proposition to the big fellow last Saturday," said Jones last night. "From the way he received the suggestion I judged that I had touched something he had been spending a good deal of thought upon."

Jeff was rather worried as to what his friends might think of it. I suggested that we call in his brother Jack and ask him what he thought about it.

Jeff then said that he would take the matter under advisement until Monday.

Although Jeff's idea is going back may be to get even with Jack Johnson, I would never think of matching him with the negro for his first fight.

"Jim has talked with Corbett and I think that Corbett encouraged him in the idea of coming back."

Jeff has been going without cigarettes or any kind of booze for six weeks and his condition is wonderful. He is 37 years old and has several big fights left in him.

He will never be happy until he has wiped out the memory of the defeat at Reno. He has spoken of it to me several times.

"I can lick that nigger, Tom," he said, "and I want to do it."

HARRY WILLIAMS WITH THE WOLVERTON WOLVES.

For the First Time in Modern History It Looks as if Sacramento Had a Baseball Team With a Regular Chance—Little Eva Swain Is Growing Thin Through Training.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

MARYSVILLE, March 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sacramento may not win the Coast League pennant this season, but if Harry Wolverton and his Wolves, the whilom Senators, do not have the other teams humped in front then I am no baseball "dopester."

Indications point to one of the closest races in the history of the league with Sacramento in the race for the first time.

Wolverton knows a world of baseball; he always enjoys the confidence of his men; has the faculty of getting results out of them and has strengthened the club until it shows like a real contender.

It looks strong on paper, but of course you never can tell what will happen in baseball. It will take an awful run of hard luck to drop Sacramento into its usual lowly position.

HAPPY BASEBALL FAMILY.

I found the Wolves, so named in honor of their new leader, comfortably ensconced in this city which is ideal in facilities and surroundings. They are a happy baseball family and for the first time in years the team seems to be keyed up to a winning pitch.

They are imbued with the "Wolverton spirit," which means a fight until the last man is down.

Five hard workouts last week earned the club a day of leisure. Some of them passed Sunday autoing through the picturesque country that is contiguous to Marysville, while others tried their hands at nimbroling.

Incidentally, Pitcher Johnny Williams of Honolulu saw his first jack-rabbit. When the ample-eared animal hopped out from under a bush Johnny, who is a sure-enough Kanaka, was so surprised that he forgot to shoot. He thought it was an infant kangaroo.

I found our fellow-townsmen, the only Los Angeles man on the squad, so sore that he could not step from the pavement to the sidewalk. He started a bit too strong, but hopes to get rid of this muscular agony within a week.

"LITTLE EVA" THIN.

Not until I was introduced three times to Charley Swain did I recognize the young man. Last season "Little Eva" looked like a monument erected to the memory of the beef trust. Now he has to stand twice in a place to make a shadow. He is getting down to weight with a vengeance.

Pitchers Arrelanes, Alberts and Hardes, Second Baseman O'Rourke and Catcher Kreitz are the only men who have not reported.

All of them except O'Rourke are expected to register here today. Patsy is coaching St. Mary's baseball team, and will not show up until he has finished fashioning the collegians into "champions."

Wolverton tells me that Patsy is now in good condition, so there is no hurry about his reporting.

Two hard workouts are on the schedule for today and, by the way, our old friend, Billie Burke, is again on the job.

Got His Goat.

MANAGING THE CUBS IS WORRYING JOHNNY EVERS.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)

TAMPA, March 2.—[Special Dispatch.] John Evers is already worrying over his job as manager. One need take only one good look at him to note the change that has come over him since the Cubs went into training here a bit less than two weeks ago.

He has actually aged and the lines in his face have deepened. It is evident that he has found that the burden of a big league baseball club is a little more than he reckoned with, before he took the job vacated by Chance. Not only has the club itself been a nightmare to the little second-manager, but he is bothered by the fact that he is being panned more

MAN AND MAID IN ALTITUDE FLIGHT.

John Guy Kilpatrick yesterday broke the American altitude record for passenger aeroplanes, by rising 8000 feet above Los Angeles in a Deperdussin monoplane, with Miss Margaret Stahl of Jersey City as a passenger.

While the ascent was regularly made, the record does not become official, for the reason that the former record of 4660 feet was not exceeded by the 500 feet required to make a new record. One additional turn in the ether might have effected an entry upon the permanent records of airmen.

Kilpatrick's start was made from Fairfax Park, whence he swung out toward the ocean and circled in four twenty-mile sweeps until his greatest height was attained at a point immediately above the heart of Los Angeles. This elevation was accomplished in one hour and ten minutes.

Miss Stahl, only 35 years of age, is the first woman in America to attempt to break the altitude record. The machine used made about 130 miles during the day, having been flown from Dominguez Field to Fairfax Park before the altitude flight, and returned there afterward by W. Leonard Bonney.

PACHMEYER LEADS AT TURNER RIFLE MATCH.

Otto Pachmeyer made high score of 193 in the championship class at the monthly medal contest of the shooting section of the Los Angeles Turner Verein Germania on the Schustetter Park range yesterday, while A. Maas, of the first class, made the highest score of the day with 208.

As 200 points are required to entitle the winner to wear the championship medal, no award was made in that event, but Secretary Maas donated his first-class medal on his fine score.

Henry Pörmann took the second class medal with a score of 178; H. Hinde secured the third class trophy by totaling 173, and Henry Pörmann, Jr., took the fourth on 161.

Other scores were: Mrs. C. Krenzel, 169; L. A. Breen, 178; Max Priem, 161; C. H. Hunter, 153; and H. Hoyt, 149.

The scores: Hawaii, Goals—Rice, 31; Castle, 4; Dillingham, 3; Baldwin, 2; Penally, Dillingham, 3; net scores, 114. Canada, Goals—Carls, 3; Snowden, 1; Penally, Robertson, 4; net score, 38. ### ISLAND POLO MEN VICTORS.

Thousands Witness Opening of Tournament.

Two Players Thrown During Exciting Play.

Critchley Was Clever Man of Canadians.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CORONADO (Cal.) March 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A smiling, open, splendid field and several thousand spectators, made the inauguration of the eighth annual polo tournament at the Coronado Country Club today an auspicious one marked by brilliant polo in which the all-Hawaiian team defeated the Canadian floor, 11½ to 3½.

The match was the first drawn for play for the California challenge trophy. The Canadians have become great favorites by their many games of which they had lost but one until today. The Hawaiians, however, were given an ovation as they rode out on the field for it is their first invasion. Their wisdom in sending their stable of ponies months beforehand to get acclimated was early shown to have had its effect. The mounts were their best and altogether seem the cleverest lot in the list of entries.

EARLY SCORE.

The first score of the game was made by Capt. Snowden, of the Canadians in fifty-five seconds of play, but the Hawaiians got under way as the last of the first period and at the bugle were apparently about to score when Critchley drove the ball out of bounds to stop them.

They opened up in the second chukkur and kept the game well in hand throughout. Capt. Dillingham drove the first goal through in a minute of play and Harold K. Castle began to figure in the dashes and counted two goals before the period closed. At-thur Rice got in the way of his first rush to goal and was thrown from his pony in the collision. A minute later O. A. Critchley of the Canadians was also thrown from his mount in an exciting mix in which a foul was called on Dillingham. The third Hawaiian goal came from pretty passing by Rice and Castle.

DOUBLED LEAD.

Having taken the lead, the Hawaiians easily held it all the way, continuing to increase it.

Critchley was unexpectedly a star for Canada while Baldwin and Castle, the latter particularly, were brilliant performers for the Islanders.

The Pasadena and Coronado teams play tomorrow.

The line-up: Hawaii—Arthur Rice, J. H. K. Castle, 2; W. F. Dillingham, 3; P. F. Baldwin, back. Canada—Richard Carls, 1; E. B. Snowden, 3; O. A. Critchley, 3; Harry Robertson, back.

The scores: Hawaii, Goals—Rice, 31; Castle, 4; Dillingham, 3; Baldwin, 2; Penally, Dillingham, 3; net scores, 114. Canada, Goals—Carls, 3; Snowden, 1; Penally, Robertson, 4; net score, 38. Referee, Max, Col. G. Rosa, Coronado, and John H. Hobbs, Pasadena. Timer, Capt. Frank Leach, Scorer, J. S. Hammond.

PRINCE PILSEN

AT MAJESTIC.

MAX BARNETT'S CLEVER HUMOR

Max Barnett's clever humor is the main feature of the new production of "Prince Pilsen" at the Majestic. The play is a comedy in three acts, and is a clever and original work.

BY HECTOR ALMAY.

"The Prince of Pilsen" has been running at the Majestic for several weeks, and has been a great success. The play is a comedy in three acts, and is a clever and original work. The production is a masterpiece of comedy, and is a great success.

The programme yesterday was composed, as usual, of serious classical parts, soloist presentations, works of local composers, and well-known works of recognized masters. From these Overture by Beethoven, Ralph Giesburg in concerto for violin by Max Bruch, Miss Fannie Dillit's first musical composition interpreted by an orchestra, "Molto Maestoso" from "Symphonie Suite," "Au Moulin" of Hildy, and by request, "The Power of Destiny" by Verdi. A number not on the programme was the introduction of "I Will Exalt Thee," beautifully sung by Miss Isabella Ingram, accompanied by Ray Westinghouse on the organ. The young violinist and the young composer were both well applauded as well as the orchestra and its conductor.

Orpheum. Today will witness the appearance at the local Orpheum of Madame Sarah Bernhardt and her company from the Theatre Sarah Bernhardt, Paris, brought over by Martin Beck. Madame Bernhardt and her own company will be seen here twice a day, in a repertoire, which consists of the following successes: Monday and Tuesday afternoons and nights, "L'Esclavage," Wednesday and Thursday matinee and night, "One Christmas Night," Friday matinee and night, "Theodora," Saturday and Sunday matinee and night, "Camille." The repertoire will, of course, be changed for her second week. Bernhardt and her company, together with the vaudeville show accompanying her, will arrive at Arcadia station by special Southern Pacific train at 10 o'clock this morning, together with four cars of scenery and effects, seventy trunks and a retinue of servants. With Madame Bernhardt comes an especially selected vaudeville bill, every act with her personal "O.K." on it. It is headed by the Phillip Bartholomew players, in his farce "And They Lived Happily Ever Afterward," Josie Heather, English comedienne; Brenner and Ratcliff in a skit, "At the Flower Stand," McMahon, Diamond and Clemens in "The Scarecrow," a novel affair, and Ignatius Cardozo, piano virtuoso, are also in the bill. The only act held over is "Lolo, the Mystic."

Grand opera and motion pictures. That is the combination that will be offered during the first part of this week at the Lyceum Theatre, beginning tonight. Negotiating tonight and continuing tomorrow and Wednesday nights, with a matinee performance Wednesday afternoon, the Italian Grand Opera Company will be heard at the Lyceum in "L'Esclavage" and "Cavalleria Rusticana." The Italian Opera Company is an organization of Grand artists headed by Adeline Dougan, who have recently come to California from the City of Mexico, which they left when the recent uprising against the Mexican regime began.

Their presentations and artistry have received much lavish critical praise, from the critics of the southern cities. "L'Esclavage" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" are offered complete in every detail with a special orchestra, although they are given without the chorus at a popular scale of prices from 25 cents to $1.

Throughout the day at the Lyceum will be shown the new programme of feature motion pictures, showing as its foremost picture a complete panorama of the Panama Canal, and the sensational new film, "The Theft of the Secret Code."

Nat C. Goodwin will begin his third week with the Morocco Producing company tonight in the mammoth scenic production of Charles Dickens' masterpiece, "Oliver Twist." Through-out the first two weeks, all previous records have been smashed and the new Broadway theatre has been far too small to accommodate the vast demand for seats, and there is every indication that Mr. Goodwin's "Oliver Twist" and the work of the other members of the Morocco company will continue to attract capacity audiences throughout the third week.

"The Elfin of Youth," yesterday entered upon the third week of its successful run at the Burbank Theatre, before two enthusiastic audiences of capacity proportions.

One of the authors, Zillah Covington, continues in the chief role of Dr. Reyles, the old doctor, while the other members of the cast remain the same.

Frances Clare, Guy Rawson and their eight dancing girls will be the headline feature of the new Sullivan & Considine bill opening at the Empress Theatre this afternoon.

A rural lad takes advantage of the new patent post system and sends himself through the mails to visit his sweetheart. The production is full of ridiculous situations and shows a big under the wire.

Lucius Henderson, the Tanqueray director, was interrupted in the production of "The Woman Who Didn't Care" by a black cat. The services of a cat actor were required in certain scenes, and after a diligent search for a cat, Henderson's machine was sent after the animal and he acted perfectly for a short time. Then, firing of the work, he bolted through his machine and disappeared. All efforts to induce the cat to come forth failed and the director was compelled to "double the part."

One of the New York motion picture comedies, "The Bird of Paradise," yesterday, Manager Morocco is not in the city at present and the telegram was sent to New York, where the film men and the producer will get together.

A sorry side of reel drama is the "retakes." It often happens that a law in the film of a slight mistake on the part of an actor will necessitate the taking of several scenes over again. This is very discouraging after a photographer has accomplished a dangerous feat or done a piece of exceptional work.

In one of the scenes of Philip Smalley's latest Rex production, Harry Pollard was called upon to fall backwards over a cliff. The fall was executed for another shot, and to save himself, the actor grabbed at the weeds on the bank. The earth was torn away and the scene was exceptionally realistic. It was discovered that there was a defect in the film and the scene had to be made a second time.

The latest additions to the main street of Universal City are a church and an adobe office building. General Manager Aubrey M. Kennedy has built up a real frontier town on the Universal property. The only thing which detracts from the early western atmosphere of the settlement is the sight of a fleet of automobiles coming and going continually as the small of gasoline.

A clubhouse has been dedicated to the players of the Bronco and Kay Bee companies of the New York Motion Picture Company, located in the Santa Ynez Canyon. The building is equipped with crib tables, billiard desks, easy chairs, books and magazines, as well as the daily papers. There is a stage in one end of the room, and a set of scenery and instruments for a complete orchestra.

When the Santa Monica Canyon fire was raging last fall, seventy-five men from the Bronco and Kay Bee companies volunteered their services and fought the flames from early evening until 2 o'clock the following morning. When the fire had been put out. Fifteen of the boys stayed on until late in the morning, putting out a number of small fires.

W. A. Brooks, one of the managers of the company, received a notice a short time later to the effect that the Santa Monica Land and Water Company wanted to give a little present to the men who had put out the great fire.

When Brooks called at the company's office he was handed a large roll of bills. This money was used as the foundation of a fund for the building of a clubhouse.

Madame Bernhardt and her own company will be seen here twice a day, in a repertoire, which consists of the following successes: Monday and Tuesday afternoons and nights, "L'Esclavage," Wednesday and Thursday matinee and night, "One Christmas Night," Friday matinee and night, "Theodora," Saturday and Sunday matinee and night, "Camille." The repertoire will, of course, be changed for her second week. Bernhardt and her company, together with the vaudeville show accompanying her, will arrive at Arcadia station by special Southern Pacific train at 10 o'clock this morning, together with four cars of scenery and effects, seventy trunks and a retinue of servants. With Madame Bernhardt comes an especially selected vaudeville bill, every act with her personal "O.K." on it. It is headed by the Phillip Bartholomew players, in his farce "And They Lived Happily Ever Afterward," Josie Heather, English comedienne; Brenner and Ratcliff in a skit, "At the Flower Stand," McMahon, Diamond and Clemens in "The Scarecrow," a novel affair, and Ignatius Cardozo, piano virtuoso, are also in the bill. The only act held over is "Lolo, the Mystic."

The Powers has finished that wonderful production, "The Calling of Louis Monse." The acting throughout the picture is done in a spirit of reverence, and the scenes made in the chapel of the monastery are exceptionally impressive.

Edwin August as Louis Monse appears in a role created for himself by himself and has done his best work. Charles Manley as the old prior is seen at his best also. Miss Jane Macpherson has a strong part as the girl in the picture and gives an artistic interpretation of the role.

Henry "Pat" Lehman, made the last scene of "The Sheriff of Bangville" yesterday. This is another Keystone laugh generator in which Fred Mac is the prime funny man as the Sheriff.

A spectacular Indian feature picture is now being produced by the Kalem Glendale Company. William H. West is appearing in the role of an Indian chief, Miss Francis Billington as an Indian maid and Carlisle Blackwell as a frontiersman.

Henry Melles, the Universal director, is staging an interesting picture which has to do with the superstitions of the Indian. The military is cleverly worked into the plot and there are several scenes laid about a frontier fort.

The Indian ghost dance scene is extraordinary, and vividly presents the customs of the red man.

Miss Mona Darkfeather, Charles Bartlett and Roy Weather are appearing in exceptionally strong roles.

FOUR MOTORCYCLISTS SPILLED AT SANTA ANA.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SANTA ANA, March 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Four motorcycle racers were spilled at the Santa Ana race track today, three in a contest and one in practice. In the last race of the afternoon, a one-hour free-for-all, Bergemann of Denver, went down on the north curve, receiving a cut over one eye. Graves' machine could not dodge Bergemann's machine, and was thrown into the fence at terrific speed. Graves' machine was smashed, and one leg terribly bruised. Lambert, of Austin, fell from his motorcycle, but escaped injury, though his machine was damaged. Practice Fredericks of Denver, had a fall that brought him a cut on the nose. Riders of Indian motorcycles won every race. The summary:

Five-mile, four horse power, Dietrich first, Corson, second; Hamilton, third, time, 5m. 10.5-ss.

Five-mile match race for cup—Dietrich defeated Corson in 5m. 13s. Ten-mile, twin cylinder—Graves, first, time, 12m. 10.5-ss. Knight, second, 12m. 11.5-ss. Knight, third, 12m. 12.5-ss.

Ten-mile, four horse power, free-for-all—Dietrich, first; Mulvihill, second, time, 12m. 10.5-ss. Five-mile free-for-all, twin cylinders—Graves, first; Bennett, second; Shaw, third, time, 4m. 12s.

Five-mile free-for-all, Knight, first, 4m. 10.5-ss. Barrett, second, 4m. 11.5-ss. Corson, third, 4m. 12.5-ss.

BAT GETS ANOTHER NEW YORK, March 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Battling Nelson has signed articles for another fight. The scrap will be for ten rounds and his opponent will be Frank Whitney, the fighting carpenter of Grand Rapids. Battling Nelson comes from his Atlanta on next Wednesday night. Nelson is guaranteed $350 with a privilege of 20 per cent. of the receipts.

KNOX HAS NOVEL UNLOADING METHOD.

The feature of the Knox automobile exhibit at the Madison Square Garden, which attracted most attention from the lumbermen and the coal merchants, was the demonstration of the quick changing of the Martin tractor from one wagon to another. Whenever an appreciable length of time is consumed in loading or unloading, this tractor, with its interchangeable trailer system, comes nearest to a solution of the elimination of the time losses than any other motor vehicle. This is especially true in the transportation of lumber or coal. Often a half a day is spent in loading and unloading a truck-load of several tons, during which time the tractor is idle. Not so with the tractor trailer system, for while one trailer is being unloaded, the tractor has another on the way to its destination, where perhaps a third trailer is being unloaded. The operation of shifting one trailer to another is but the work of a few minutes.

The Knox tractor is also becoming very popular in the passenger service. Warren Vance of the Vance-Canaan Motor Company, has recently returned from a visit to the different shows, and spent several days at the Knox factory while in the East, and states that at the present time, the Knox company is turning out "pay-as-you-enter" buses, with a capacity for sixty passengers, and the expense is considerably less than with the old-style motor trucks.

SOUTH PASADENA, MARCH 2.
The automobile of O. C. Williams turned turtle last evening on Fair Oaks avenue, near the Raymond Hotel, and the five passengers were thrown out, all sustaining bruises, but no serious injuries. Williams received a cut over the left eye and bruises about the face and body. Mr. Williams suffered the fracture of two ribs and numerous bruises, their two children, Ethel and Theodore, and Arthur Brittain, all were more or less bruised.
The accident was caused by the wheels of the car running in a rut near the Raymond Hotel, causing it to turn quickly to the left. Williams, who was driving, failed control, turned the car to the right when it skidded and struck another rut, which rolled the car over, causing a fire. The car was completely demolished, the radiator smashed, the bed broken, besides the loss of the car, the driver lost the car to the extent of $150.
MAY USE ELECTRICITY.
There is a strong probability of the Southern Pacific track between Shorb, South Pasadena, and Pasadena, through the city, being converted into an electric line, and thus becoming a branch line of the Pacific Electric Railway. It was announced that the plans have been made for the extension of the line from Shorb through the Coyote Pass, to Long Beach.

PASADENA, March 3.—There was a commotion in the dining-room of the Hotel Maryland yesterday noon when 100 or more fashionable guests were put to rout by an impetuous Dr. T. W. Bishop's sanitarium in South Pasadena, who mounted one of the tables and began to declaim on the subject of the "Duties of Chambers of Commerce." The speaker, who was a well-known local orator, was followed by the Rev. W. H. Hannibal on "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself."
The banquet was the largest and most appreciated of any previous year in the history of the hotel. A total membership of 100, with a prospect of an increase to 125 before the next quarter.

LONG BEACH OFFICERS TRAP TWO SHOPLIFTERS.
Apartments Occupied by the Recreant Ones Contained Goods Taken from Los Angeles and Santa Monica—Bakerfield Man Hurt Attempting to Board Moving Car.

LONG BEACH, March 3.—The long in the detective room at police headquarters is strewn today with various articles of wearing apparel, female lingerie and household trifles, which Chief Assistant Detective O'Rourke unearthed last night, when following up a complaint lodged by a local millinery store, they arrested on suspicion Mrs. Grace Fear, owner of a rooming-house on East First street, and Mrs. Nettie Young, who lives in that city with her husband. When arrested Mrs. Young was wearing the missing hat, which had been retrimmed. Three other hats were also found, which the women later acknowledged had been stolen from various stores in the city.

Mrs. Fear, who is the widow of the Pasadena man found two months ago in that city with his throat cut, is about 40 years of age and her accomplice is 40 years. Their practice was to visit a store and while Mrs. Fear changed the attention of the clerks, Mrs. Young took whatever her fancy coveted, concealing the plundered articles in a dark straw hat which she carried to night in her hand. The women started to unwrap several bundles lying on a table they broke down and confessed.
Among the goods found were four hats, one box face powder, three pairs of children's shoes, one lace waist, quilted hair ribbon, lace jabot, three pairs of gloves, black velvet skirt, downy, burnt leather hand bag, one kimono, black crepe de chine dress, green silk petticoat, white work basket, several bolts of lace insertion, quilted muslin, photograph album, Japanese table cover, burnt leather souvenirs, half dozen embroidered dollies, a dozen handkerchiefs, two miniature paintings, a sequined whisky glass, one roller towel, salt and pepper shakers, and half dozen silver spoons, the latter which were taken from the cafe where they took their meals. The lace collar was purloined from the Fifth street store, the kimono, skirt and one pair of gloves from the Broadway Department store, but the rest of the plunder was taken from local stores and from various concessions on the Pike.
The women were taken to headquarters and charged with petit larceny, and on this charge were taken before Judge Brainerd.

HARTWELL NOT SATISFIED.
Two Autopsies Performed in the Case of Woman Who Inhaled Gas and Died.

OCEAN PARK, March 2.—Not satisfied with an autopsy performed by another surgeon, the relatives of the deceased, Coroner Hartwell today ordered Dr. L. H. Case of this city to make an examination of the body of the woman who died at her home, No. 441 Raymond avenue, from gas asphyxia. The woman, who was named Mrs. Von Wedelstadi, established the fact that Mrs. Taylor was a suicide. The second confirmed the first finding. The coroner's jury returned a verdict from pleased with the conduct of the relatives and officials after the death of the woman. The autopsy was not properly made, he says. The children of the dead woman, a nursemaid from Seattle, Thursday and found their mother dead, her face close to an open gas jet.

NO TRACE.
No trace has been found of the missing Rev. John H. Haver, the Ocean Park minister who disappeared from his home after leaving his wife a note telling her that he was on his way to a conference in Los Angeles. It is now the opinion of both friends of Haver and the police that the minister has been taken to the city by the police. Rev. Leslie Lobinger, pastor of the First Christian Church and one of the closest friends of Haver, stated that in his opinion, the minister did not commit suicide. Rev. Lobinger said that he had seen Haver last night, and that he was not pressing. His wife will go back to her parents in Memphis, Tenn., within a few days.

STRUCK BY SANTA FE TRAIN.
Resident of Orange Is Victim of Accident at Anaheim Which May Prove Fatal—News Briefs.

ANAHEIM, March 2.—Francisco Palaya was run over by a Santa Fe train last night near the South street crossing. He was discovered at 3 o'clock this morning by a passerby. The victim was found lying on the track for two hours without aid. The victim is an amputee. The right leg has been amputated just below the knee and his right hand was crushed so that it also had to be amputated. The scalp was torn. He has a fighting chance for life. Palaya is an elderly man who has been employed by J. C. Koede at Orange.

NEWS BRIEFS.
The Anaheim Fruit Association has resumed operations and has sent out three carloads of oranges of the navel variety to the coast of California. This is the first fruit sent by the association since the January freeze, and is of excellent quality. LONG BEACH OFFICERS TRAP TWO SHOPLIFTERS.
Apartments Occupied by the Recreant Ones Contained Goods Taken from Los Angeles and Santa Monica—Bakerfield Man Hurt Attempting to Board Moving Car.

LONG BEACH, March 3.—The long in the detective room at police headquarters is strewn today with various articles of wearing apparel, female lingerie and household trifles, which Chief Assistant Detective O'Rourke unearthed last night, when following up a complaint lodged by a local millinery store, they arrested on suspicion Mrs. Grace Fear, owner of a rooming-house on East First street, and Mrs. Nettie Young, who lives in that city with her husband. When arrested Mrs. Young was wearing the missing hat, which had been retrimmed. Three other hats were also found, which the women later acknowledged had been stolen from various stores in the city.

Mrs. Fear, who is the widow of the Pasadena man found two months ago in that city with his throat cut, is about 40 years of age and her accomplice is 40 years. Their practice was to visit a store and while Mrs. Fear changed the attention of the clerks, Mrs. Young took whatever her fancy coveted, concealing the plundered articles in a dark straw hat which she carried to night in her hand. The women started to unwrap several bundles lying on a table they broke down and confessed.
Among the goods found were four hats, one box face powder, three pairs of children's shoes, one lace waist, quilted hair ribbon, lace jabot, three pairs of gloves, black velvet skirt, downy, burnt leather hand bag, one kimono, black crepe de chine dress, green silk petticoat, white work basket, several bolts of lace insertion, quilted muslin, photograph album, Japanese table cover, burnt leather souvenirs, half dozen embroidered dollies, a dozen handkerchiefs, two miniature paintings, a sequined whisky glass, one roller towel, salt and pepper shakers, and half dozen silver spoons, the latter which were taken from the cafe where they took their meals. The lace collar was purloined from the Fifth street store, the kimono, skirt and one pair of gloves from the Broadway Department store, but the rest of the plunder was taken from local stores and from various concessions on the Pike.
The women were taken to headquarters and charged with petit larceny, and on this charge were taken before Judge Brainerd.

HARTWELL NOT SATISFIED.
Two Autopsies Performed in the Case of Woman Who Inhaled Gas and Died.

OCEAN PARK, March 2.—Not satisfied with an autopsy performed by another surgeon, the relatives of the deceased, Coroner Hartwell today ordered Dr. L. H. Case of this city to make an examination of the body of the woman who died at her home, No. 441 Raymond avenue, from gas asphyxia. The woman, who was named Mrs. Von Wedelstadi, established the fact that Mrs. Taylor was a suicide. The second confirmed the first finding. The coroner's jury returned a verdict from pleased with the conduct of the relatives and officials after the death of the woman. The autopsy was not properly made, he says. The children of the dead woman, a nursemaid from Seattle, Thursday and found their mother dead, her face close to an open gas jet.

NO TRACE.
No trace has been found of the missing Rev. John H. Haver, the Ocean Park minister who disappeared from his home after leaving his wife a note telling her that he was on his way to a conference in Los Angeles. It is now the opinion of both friends of Haver and the police that the minister has been taken to the city by the police. Rev. Leslie Lobinger, pastor of the First Christian Church and one of the closest friends of Haver, stated that in his opinion, the minister did not commit suicide. Rev. Lobinger said that he had seen Haver last night, and that he was not pressing. His wife will go back to her parents in Memphis, Tenn., within a few days.

Yesterday at The Times School of Domestic Science

Conducted by
Mrs. Bertha Haflner-Ginger

Cooking as a Fine Art.

FOR WOMEN HOMEKEEPERS.

FASCINATING TALK ON A FASCINATING ART.

Open House and Free Lessons
Three Days in the Week, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 9:30 a.m., Second Floor, New "Times" Building.

Is there any place in the house more inviting than a clean, bright kitchen? Not the two adjectives, if every housewife would see to it that her kitchen—where the daily meals of her family are prepared—is as immaculate and orderly as possible, the cook would have a pleasant place to live in and would take more interest in keeping the kitchen tidy. The members of the class in one of Mrs. Haflner-Ginger's lessons in the Times School of Domestic Science, at the Times Building, were shown the interior of a convent kitchen; and doing the work there are shown in the kitchen. The kitchen is a beautiful, white-walled room. One sees the kitchen dresser reaching up for plates; and there's a little cupboard running about and getting in the way and trying to help. What the old monkish legend that it represents is, we do not know, but as the painter puts it on his canvas, all are as busy, and working with such a will, and so refining the work as they do it, that somehow, as you look upon it, you forget that pans are pans and pots are pots, and only think of the angels, and how very natural and beautiful kitchen work is. That's the way one feels as she watches the cooking go on in the Times model kitchen—how very natural and beautiful kitchen work may be made by devoting time and thought and scientific reasoning to the very important duty of compounding foods to nourish the body which must be kept in perfect health in order that the mind and spirit may do their work—and that comprehend life in its entirety. The kitchen is the fountain head wherein all our faculties are really fed.

French Pastries and Fillings.
The special class of Saturday afternoon had a hilarious time and with a most profitable session. French pastries and their fillings and fancy dishes were the order of the afternoon. A prominent Ebell woman was a state of agitation. Take for instance an employer, who has a competent secretary, stenographer or executive and needs her services after the hour of the day when the employer has to do is to ask her to go to his home and take down the notes, and in the meantime a typewriter has been sent to spend a couple of hours taking down the notes for the morning. Take a woman who is a secretary of a company, a bookkeeper who is getting a good salary and wants to keep her position. She can't complete her work in eight hours, takes her books home and works two or three hours a week for four or five hours each night.

It was a scene of great activity all the morning Saturday. The special class began at 2 o'clock and, so general is the cook lady with her time, that it was dark before the pupils left.

"I got four all over myself and the floor," laughed one jolly matron as she was telling her experience, "but Mrs. Haflner-Ginger said I never looked so well."

Food Men Fled.
"I thought I had struck a meeting of some secret society of women, they all sat gazing with such a rapt expression on their faces," said a man who dropped in—or tried to—at the Times cooking school lecture and demonstration the other afternoon. He only got as far as the door where he craned his neck over the heads of the feminine crowd that packed the auditorium in the effort to get a glimpse of the platform and see what it was that so riveted the attention of those 500 women.

It happened to be just at the crucial moment when Mrs. Haflner-Ginger was transferring that baked shad from the pan to the platter and the interest was intense. The man resented some sort of food company or kitchen implement industry and his plan was to get his goods before the housekeepers, but that big bunch of femininity and the utter hopelessness of his getting even standing-room inside, caused him to flee and tell his troubles to the elevator man.

Salads of All Sorts.
Salads—fruit salads, vegetable salads, fish and meat salads—made of beets, beans, carrots, cabbage, shrimp, sweetbreads, salmon, rice, radish, cucumber, celery, pineapple, potato, peppers, peas, tomatoes, tongue, chicken, cheese, eggs or olives—all these and many more are just as familiar to Mrs. Haflner-Ginger as the rising sun is to ordinary mortals. Salads in all languages—Russian, Japanese, Mexican, Hungarian, Italian—salads in all shades of color, combination and flavor make up the menu of the accomplished cook lady's dishes in this line.

This afternoon she will give a lecture on these delectable dishes that are so especially welcome to the jaded appetite at this season of the year. The piquant taste of a refreshing salad will frequently transform an indolent appetite to a ravenous hunger. There is nothing so healthful as a fine salad, made of the good green vegetables in their natural state.

Just as salt savors the whole dish, so the salad dressing flavors the salad and, no matter how good it may be, the best of salads may be ruined for want of a good dressing. Mrs. Haflner-Ginger gives special attention to the salad dressings. She makes successful dressings in any color, may fancy—white, green, pink or red; she connects a French capital; she'll do the Spanish or an India dressing; any other language you may prefer, she knows all about the mystery of the cherry sauce and vergette mixtures, all these difficult dressings. Come to this free lecture and demonstration this afternoon and see how she does it.

Facts, Features and Fancies

FOR WOMEN AND MEN. BY OLIVE GRAY.

BY OLIVE GRAY.

THE FASHION SHOW: The consummation of all that is best in new spring styles, brought together for our inspection in a glorious festival! The quintessence of invention by trained window decorators, supreme artists in their line! The best that fashion offers for the embellishment of beauty and the most brilliant lights known to the electric world to illuminate the scene! These are some of the features which will make the United Fashion Show worthy the attention of the most jaded world-weary eyes. The unveiling of the windows next Wednesday night, at 7 o'clock, will attract spectators by the thousand, as it has always done.

"Why," asked a critical gentleman, not many days ago, "do you pay so much attention to your columns to the subject of women's clothes? There are many other things which women wish to know about! Cooking and sewing, how to keep the home and what to read and play—" "Yes, but at this season," I replied, "clothes take on more prominence because it is the time to buy—" "Oh, that reminds me," said the critical "mere man," "my wife asked me to look up where the best hats were to be found, and as to evening wraps—she wants the very latest mode to wear to a reception, and—and—let me see—there was something else—" "How to cook some kind of food. Or how to scrub the floor. Perhaps some of the questions which you suggested a moment since are more interesting, than that old one of clothes—" "No, it was something about wearables—I have it! She asked where she would find the best line of silks in the newest weaves and where the best boudoir robes—" "And she didn't want to know about what to read or play?" He smiled rather faintly and conceded: "You are right. I guess it is that time of year—" "It often is," he said.

Some Fashion Revelations.

Revelations made by the Fashion Show will be: First, those of strange, new colorings or combinations of shade and tone such as we have never seen.

For instance the new purple, known as "cathedral," will find a place beside that reddish shade called "coc de roche" and will in some cases rest beside "Pompeii rose" or "Chinese red," with a touch of "Tunisian green." I know that this sounds nightmarish; but in reality these strange color combinations are quite harmonious, because, no one of them stands out in full relief and because, too, they are given atmosphere by their surroundings and by the fact that no single one predominates. When you come to think of it, Dame Fashion is justified in her choice of many colors, by the action of her old friend, often thought to be her enemy, Dame Nature, who in woods and fields makes more strange color combinations than ever Dame Fashion dares, even upon the palette of the most daring colorist, who has traced a label, to be "copied in New York."

The Decided Note in Frocks.

I have always told you that Dame Fashion has a law of compensation all her own. This season it lies in contrast. By reason of the separate coat which crept upon us last year, the most stylish frocks have coats and skirts of different materials and colorings. This year, rather than imperious—"can't you see?"—since one may easily make two frocks grow where one grew before, by using two skirts for one frock. For example, take a well made coat of white and use with it a skirt of black charmeuse and give a striking touch by means of black uppers. The collar and a blouse of white and white; then have a second skirt of check in black and white, to use in a like manner.

Making Over.

In "making over"—that delight of the handy girl or woman—Dame Fashion has this season been most considerate. With the fashion of quaint bindings upon the edges of coats and the mode for contrasting skirts, one may use last season's suit of brown and cut the coat skirt away in some fantastic manner, then bind the edge with narrow ribbon of black satin either plain or with a plaid edge, use black-on-the-reverse, cuffs and collar, slit up and around the skirt at one side of the front and insert an under-skirt, shamed up with black satin and—behold! one has the newest thing in suits!

But Millinery.

When it comes to millinery Dame Fashion has been less kind. Such absolute innovations as the new hat and toques that the girl who has the making-over crane will be completely "stumped." At first she may have thought that she could use the crown of her last season's hat for the entire toque; but she will find that crown too large around and will be driven to the purchase of at least a frame in this season's shape. It is just possible that she might utilize the brim of her last season's hump shape, and weld on a peaked crown of crepe with flower and silk or chiffon. She may use her

Chinese "Gift Cloths."

Did you know that Chinese gift cloths are not gifts at all, but are supposed to be put upon the table served their purpose in the wrapping of the gift? You surely should have known this. Suppose you had received a gift of a Chinese cloth in which it was wrapped. You would have been breaking the rule—"inflicting upon a custom, which is to return a gift to the donor." In the present, in a charming shop where are collected articles from many lands, I saw a number of embroidered gift cloths in most unusual colors and embroidered beautifully. Why should not we adopt the plan of gift cloths? For the amount which we expend in papers, cards and ribbons to do our Christmas gifts we could buy a Chinese gift cloth and they would last for years and would become almost sacred with the savor of transported gifts.

To Have a Gallery.

Speaking about paintings, one of the new artists who is building an exhibition gallery for the display of pictures or of collections of rare curiosities. The building, which the walls are well arranged. This place will prove a boon to artists who have studios remotely located—as artists like to have—and who may here make exhibition of their productions in a central place. It will also prove a blessing for those who love art and who miss the galleries to which they have been accustomed.

A Practical Veil.

A new veil for motorcars has across the face an inserted square or oval of plain white web, which covers the remainder of the veil is a check chiffon or marquisette, being in a color and worn tightly wrapped around the hat and neck. Lace, satin and straw are ingeniously worked together in the making of some of the latest hats. Many of the half-season suits are of Ottoman silk serges, piped and a ribbed silk-faced material. All-white hats promise to be extremely popular. They are trimmed with large bows of supple ribbon. The veiling of dress robes with mouseline or voile is a pretty notion on some of the dressy tailored suits. Small flowers dotted all over the crown of a fine crepe straw-brimmed hat is a pretty style worn by young girls. Figured voiles and marquisette are attractively used as linings to some of the satin and crepe sole coats.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES"

Woman's Right to Work.

LOS ANGELES, March 1.—[To the Editor of The Times:] The continued discussion of proposed laws to regulate the hours of labor for women seems to eliminate any consideration of the wishes of women who work. Beautiful theories are propounded by the advocates of the open bill, which would operate on all females employed on salary or wages. One of the sex opposing the drastic regulations of that bill has been accused of believing that women wanted to work long hours just for the fun of work.

Womanhood is a species of being that enjoys the pleasures of life just the same as any other being. Do we stain anything by being indolent? Do we get to the rung of the ladder by sitting with our hands folded and afraid to move because we have already put in eight hours of labor? Do we think that by the having superficial knowledge of the trials of both the employer and employee, they can make themselves Caesar and have people obey their dictates? Is it constitutional to take away our liberty? All means I am in favor of an eight-hour law. Women know by their own physical ability that they cannot take more work on or not. Let them be the judges. The employers who demand more than eight hours are in the minority, and why sacrifice 17,000 of the 27,000 working women of this State? I believe that the other 20,000 include the number working in laundries, canneries, factories and restaurants to a state of inertia—to a state of stagnation. Take for instance an employer, who has a competent secretary, stenographer or executive and needs her services after the hour of the day when the employer has to do is to ask her to go to his home and take down the notes, and in the meantime a typewriter has been sent to spend a couple of hours taking down the notes for the morning. Take a woman who is a secretary of a company, a bookkeeper who is getting a good salary and wants to keep her position. She can't complete her work in eight hours, takes her books home and works two or three hours a week for four or five hours each night.
